Risk Management Update

Phil Waljasper, Manager of Liability and Worker's Compensation, presented an overview of the department services: administering the Council's self-insured claims, contract review, risk analysis for Council projects, risk claim management and property and casualty insurance procurement.

Responding to questions, Mr. Waljasper noted the Council does have reserves to cover future liabilities on current claims. He stated the commuter rail industry has had discussions about creating a risk pool to cover rail properties nationwide.

"Distracted Drivers" At What Cost?"

Vince Pellegrin, Assistant General Manager, Transit Bus Operations and Mike Conlon, Director of Transit Rail and Bus Safety, presented a video featuring bus operators in a variety of settings that illustrate the range of distractions they face every day and steps transit agencies and operators can take to control distractions. The 17-minute video, produced by Metro Transit, was named winner of the 2009 Bus Safety Gold Award by the American Public Transportation Association (APTA) at its recent national meeting..

Reports

Chair

Chair Bell reported:

- the Transportation Bill passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor, plugged a $62.4 million hole in the transit operating budget for the coming two years. It will allow operation of current and committed transit services;
- he appeared before the ULI MN/RCM CTLUS Committee to discuss transportation funding;
- he presented information on the Regional Parks Foundation to Washington County Commissioners;
- he met with University of Minnesota officials regarding CCLRT;
- he spoke about the Metropolitan Council to visiting Chamber groups from Atlanta GA and Columbus OH.

Council Members

Council Member Sersland Beach reported the Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS) Minnesota Chapter presented the Rosa Parks Diversity Leadership Award to the Central Corridor Community Outreach staff for their work in the spirit of inclusiveness in the community. The award is presented to organizations for being bold in their support and promotion of diversity, inclusiveness and multi-cultural awareness within the transportation agency.

Regional Administrator

Regional Administrator Weaver

- acknowledged Environmental Services for completing 27-months of perfect compliance at the Wastewater Treatment Plants;
