

Opening Day – April 12

Bob Gibbons
Director – Customer Services

Transit friendly location

DESTINATION: TARGET FIELD

Getting to the Ballpark

Attending a Twins game at Target Field will be a unique and exciting urban entertainment experience. Located in the historic warehouse district of downtown Minneapolis, Target Field is the most multi-modal, transit-oriented ballpark in America. No matter what your desired experience is, there is a transportation mode to Target Field that best matches your needs. The best way to get to Target Field is to plan ahead and consider all the transportation options available to you.

BY TRANSIT

The Twins and Metro Transit have teamed up to offer you complete, up-to-date information on all of your public transit options. Visit this page for information on:

- Hiawatha Light Rail
- Bus Routes
- Northstar Commuter Rail
- Game-Day Express Bus

MORE INFO >>

BY BIKE OR ON FOOT

Metro Transit
a service of the Metropolitan Council

Game #1; Twins 5, Sox 2

- At least 6,700 fans
- 17% of attendance
- Successful operation of commuter rail, light rail, bus service
- Challenge of weekday afternoon games

Twins Express Route 679

- 5 buses pre-game
- 7 buses post-game
- Service 2 hours before, 1 hour after game
- 700 fans

Northstar Commuter Rail

- Big Lake departure at 1:20pm
- Target Field Arrival at 2:10pm
- Family Pass Popular
- First of 53 Games
- 500 Fans

Hiawatha Light Rail

- Full Trains beginning at noon
- Post Game: Average wait 10-15 minutes
- Platform cleared in 50 minutes
- Supplemental buses used
- Capacity issues down line

Improvements for Today

- Hiawatha buses closer
- Repeat one-car trains
- Fewer boardings per train
- Closer management of capacity

Opening Day – 79 more games

